Questions People Ask About Eternity

Substantial KJV answers to life's greatest questions

One Saviour One Gospel Eternal Life

QUESTION 1

Is Being Sincere Enough?

> "There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." - Proverbs 14:12 KJV

Sincerity cannot turn error into truth. A person may sincerely trust the wrong road and still arrive at the wrong destination.

God calls us to trust His Son according to His Word.

HEART RESPONSE Is my confidence based on sincerity or Scripture?

A DEEPER LOOK

Sincerity Needs Truth

> "Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth." - John 17:17 KJV

Sincerity describes intensity of belief, not accuracy. Conflicting beliefs cannot all become true because their followers are earnest.

God has spoken in Scripture and supremely through His Son. Love requires us to test sincere ideas by revealed truth.

Place confidence in what God has said, not in the strength of personal conviction.

HEART RESPONSE What response does this truth require from me?

QUESTION 2

Will Religion Take Me to Heaven?

> "Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;" - Titus 3:5 KJV

Religious activity cannot remove guilt. Nicodemus was deeply religious, yet Jesus told him, Ye must be born again.

Salvation is mercy received through Christ, not religion offered to God.

HEART RESPONSE Am I trusting religion instead of Christ?

A DEEPER LOOK

Religion and Regeneration

> "Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again." - John 3:7 KJV

Nicodemus possessed religious training, morality and public respect, yet Jesus said he needed new birth.

Religion can change routines while leaving the heart untouched. Regeneration is God's work of imparting spiritual life.

Do not substitute Christian surroundings for personal faith in Christ.

HEART RESPONSE What response does this truth require from me?

QUESTION 3

Can Good Outweigh Bad?

> "Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin." - Romans 3:20 KJV

A judge does not excuse a crime because the offender also performed kind acts. Good works cannot cancel guilt.

Jesus Christ alone paid sin's penalty.

HEART RESPONSE Have I stopped trying to balance my record?

A DEEPER LOOK

Why the Scales Fail

> "For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." - James 2:10 KJV

God's judgment is not an arithmetic contest. One violation establishes guilt before the law.

Good deeds are already duties owed to the Creator; they cannot become currency that purchases forgiveness.

We need justification - a righteous standing given through Christ - not a favourable average.

HEART RESPONSE What response does this truth require from me?

QUESTION 4

Am I Too Sinful to Be Saved?

> "Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them." - Hebrews 7:25 KJV

No sin is greater than the saving power of Christ when a sinner comes to Him in repentance and faith.

The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin.

HEART RESPONSE Will I come to Christ rather than hide from Him?

A DEEPER LOOK

Grace for the Chief of Sinners

> "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief." - 1 Timothy 1:15 KJV

Paul had persecuted believers, yet Christ saved him and displayed abundant mercy.

No record is beyond Christ's sufficient sacrifice when a sinner truly comes to Him. The greater danger is refusing grace through shame or pride.

Bring the whole truth into the light and trust the Saviour of sinners.

HEART RESPONSE What response does this truth require from me?

QUESTION 5

Why Is Jesus the Only Way?

> "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." - John 14:6 KJV

Only Jesus is the sinless Son of God. Only Jesus bore our sins. Only Jesus rose from the dead.

Therefore salvation is found in Him alone.

HEART RESPONSE Will I accept Christ's own claim?

A DEEPER LOOK

A Unique Person and Work

> "Neither is there salvation in any other:" - Acts 4:12 KJV

The claim rests upon Christ's uniqueness: God the Son became man, lived without sin, bore our guilt and rose again.

No alternative teacher or system has accomplished that saving work. The problem of guilt requires more than moral advice.

To confess one Saviour is faithfulness to His identity, not human arrogance.

HEART RESPONSE What response does this truth require from me?

QUESTION 6

What Is Repentance?

> "Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." - Acts 20:21 KJV

Repentance is a change of mind and heart toward God that turns from sin, unbelief and self-rule.

It is not cleaning yourself up before coming to Christ; it is turning to God and trusting Christ.

HEART RESPONSE Am I willing to turn to God?

A DEEPER LOOK

Repentance and Fruit

> “Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:” - Matthew 3:8 KJV

Repentance itself is the heart's turn toward God. Its fruit appears afterward in honesty, changed choices and willingness to make wrongs right.

The fruit does not purchase forgiveness, but empty words without any new direction deserve examination.

Turn to God now and allow grace to reshape conduct.

HEART RESPONSE What response does this truth require from me?

QUESTION 7

What Does It Mean to Believe?

> "And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." - Acts 16:31 KJV

Saving faith is more than knowing facts. It is personal reliance upon Jesus Christ and His finished work.

Rest the whole weight of your soul upon Him.

HEART RESPONSE Am I relying on Christ alone?

A DEEPER LOOK

Faith Has an Object

> "I know whom I have believed," - 2 Timothy 1:12 KJV

Biblical faith is not positive thinking or faith in faith. Its object is the Lord Jesus Christ.

Knowledge of facts is necessary, but saving trust commits the person to Christ as sufficient and true.

The weakest hand receives the same strong Saviour when it genuinely rests in Him.

HEART RESPONSE What response does this truth require from me?

QUESTION 8

What Happens After Death?

> "And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:" - Hebrews 9:27 KJV

Death is not the end and Scripture does not teach repeated lives. Every person enters eternity and must meet God.

Today is the day to receive His salvation.

HEART RESPONSE Am I ready to meet God?

A DEEPER LOOK

No Second Opportunity Promised

> "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation." - 2 Corinthians 6:2 KJV

Scripture directs people to respond during this life and gives no promise of repentance after death.

Believers depart to be with Christ; the unbelieving remain under judgment awaiting final resurrection.

The uncertainty of life's length makes the present invitation urgent.

HEART RESPONSE What response does this truth require from me?

QUESTION 9

Are Heaven and Hell Real?

> "And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal." - Matthew 25:46 KJV

Jesus spoke of both as real and eternal. Heaven is the home of the redeemed with God. Hell is everlasting judgment.

The warning is serious, and the invitation to come to Christ is sincere.

HEART RESPONSE Where will I spend eternity?

A DEEPER LOOK

Eternity Without Sensationalism

> "And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death." - Revelation 20:14 KJV

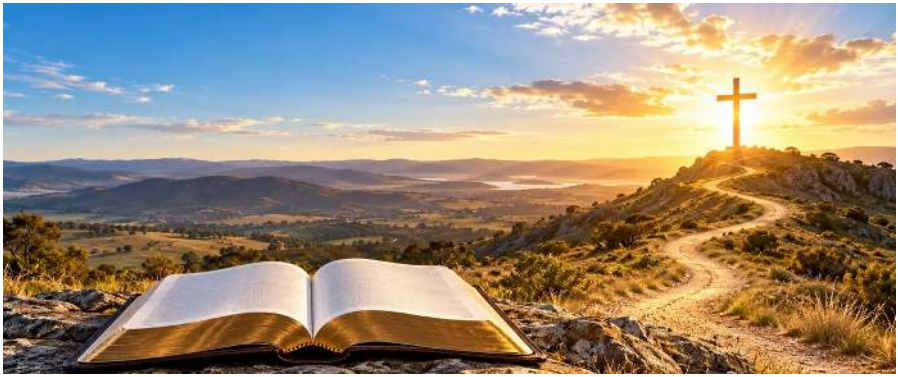
The Bible speaks soberly of everlasting life and everlasting punishment. These truths should not be used for entertainment or manipulation.

Heaven is glorious because God dwells with His redeemed people. Hell is dreadful because sin reaches its final judgment.

Let eternity produce worship, compassion, urgency and personal response to Christ.

HEART RESPONSE What response does this truth require from me?



QUESTION 10

How Can I Know I Am Saved?

> "These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life," - 1 John 5:13 KJV

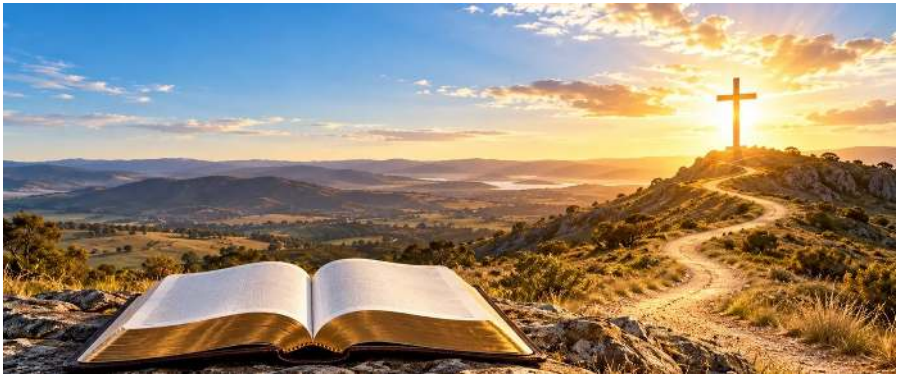
Assurance rests upon God's written promise and Christ's finished work, not changing feelings.

Ask whom you are trusting. The person who believes on the Son has everlasting life.

HEART RESPONSE Is my assurance resting upon God's Word?



A DEEPER LOOK

Promise and Evidence

> "He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life." - 1 John 5:12 KJV

Assurance begins with whether you have received the Son by faith. God's promise, not emotional intensity, is the foundation.

The Spirit also produces evidence: love for Christ, sensitivity to sin, love for believers and growing obedience.

Fruit strengthens assurance but never replaces the finished work of Christ.

HEART RESPONSE What response does this truth require from me?

QUESTION 11

Can Salvation Be Lost?

> "And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." - John 10:28 KJV

Jesus gives eternal life and keeps those who belong to Him. Salvation does not depend upon human strength.

Eternal security is not permission for sin; God disciplines and grows His children.

HEART RESPONSE Do I believe Christ is able to keep me?

A DEEPER LOOK

Eternal Life and Fatherly Discipline

> "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus," - Romans 8:1 KJV

The believer's legal condemnation has been removed because Christ bore it. Eternal security rests upon divine accomplishment.

God may discipline a disobedient child severely, and the believer may lose joy, fellowship and reward.

Discipline proves sonship; it does not mean the new birth is repeatedly reversed.

HEART RESPONSE What response does this truth require from me?

QUESTION 12

What If I Have Failed Terribly?

> "But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:" - Romans 5:20 KJV

Failure is serious, but Christ's grace is greater than every sin confessed and brought to Him.

Do not use grace to excuse sin. Let grace bring you honestly to the Saviour.

HEART RESPONSE Will I bring my failure into the light?

A DEEPER LOOK

Confession, Consequences and Grace

> "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins," - 1 John 1:9 KJV

Forgiveness does not always remove earthly consequences, but it restores honest fellowship with God.

Confess specifically, accept responsibility, seek forgiveness from those harmed and make restitution where possible.

Do not let consequences persuade you that grace has failed. Let grace teach you to walk differently.

HEART RESPONSE What response does this truth require from me?

QUESTION 13

Why Should I Not Delay?

> "Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation." - 2 Corinthians 6:2 KJV

Tomorrow is not promised. Continued refusal hardens the heart, and no person controls the length of life.

God's invitation is before you now. Turn to Christ while you hear His voice.

HEART RESPONSE What reason do I have to refuse Christ today?

A DEEPER LOOK

The Danger of a Hardening Heart

> "To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts." - Hebrews 4:7 KJV

Delay is not neutral. Repeated refusal trains the heart to resist truth and assumes control over tomorrow.

You do not need more time to become worthy; you need Christ now because you are not worthy.

Respond while the Gospel is understood and God's invitation is before you.

HEART RESPONSE What response does this truth require from me?

WHAT WILL YOU DO WITH JESUS CHRIST?

The words of a prayer cannot save you. Turn to God from sin and self-reliance, and trust Jesus Christ - His death, burial and resurrection - as your only Saviour.

"Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house." - Acts 16:31 KJV
